Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

These weeks over the summer I will be dedicating my Pastor's Letters to some teaching about the sacraments of our church.

The word "sacrament" comes from the oath or covenant of loyalty and commitment made by Roman soldiers. It indicated a commitment on both sides and was sealed by a solemn ceremony. The word is also derived from the Latin word "sacra" meaning sacred or holy. This is the Latin form of the Greek word "Mysterion" or mystery. This is why we often refer to the sacraments as "these holy mysteries."

A mystery is something that can be experienced even if it cannot be explained. We enter into the sacramental life of the church through baptism, and baptism is the best and simplest sacrament we can use to explain a few basic principles about all sacraments.

For a sacrament to be effective it needs to be valid, and for it to be valid it must have a proper candidate, a proper minister, a proper form, and a proper matter. The candidate is any person who has not been baptized.

The minister of baptism is anyone who does what the church intends to do. This means a lay person or even a non-Christian could validly administer baptism. Of course, a deacon or priest is the ordinary minister of baptism, but so that God's mercy is as widely available as possible, anyone (in an emergency) can baptize.

The proper form of baptism is the simple words, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit." While the whole form of the baptismal service is ordinarily used, that basic formula is the minimum for a valid baptism. Most non-Catholic baptisms are therefore valid and accepted by the Catholic Church. If there is some doubt, the person is conditionally baptized.

The proper matter for the sacrament of baptism is water. You can't baptize a person by dumping sand or ashes on their head or some other silly ritual. Water is necessary or its not baptism.

This is the first of the three sacraments of initiation. Baptism washes away original sin and restores the person to God's grace and favor. It is, however, the first step in the person's walk with God, and the other six sacraments are given to help the soul continue on their journey of faith.

Your Pastor,
Fr. Longenecker

MOTHER TERESA HOUSE

"Every time you smile at someone, it is an action of love, a gift to that person, a beautiful thing." Mother Teresa

A simple smile at someone can mean the world to them. If you are living at the edges of society, it means I see you as a person, you are not forgotten. In our daily interactions, it can mean the difference between a friendly interaction and a tense one. With our family and friends, it can be the hug they need to get through the day.

Recently, a single mom and her two daughters came in speaking no English and looking for rental assistance. She had no income as her job had ended, and hence a barrier to assistance, as services want to make sure you can pay future rents. Over the next hour, using Google translate, we had a conversation and exchanged lots of smiles and laughs. While we were not able to help with finding rental assistance, we were able to give her contacts for employment who speak Spanish, removing the barrier of income. Pray for her to follow through and get the job she needs to provide for her family.

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a beautiful ministry praying for our parish priests. We are looking for women to make a weekly prayer commitment for Fathers Longenecker and Ballard.

This ministry involves one woman praying one holy hour on her assigned or predetermined day of the week, every week for a one-year commitment. It can be done at home or in any nearby Catholic Church, and does not need to be in an adoration chapel.

Please go to <https://sevensistersapostolate.org/> for more information. If you are interested, please contact Jeanine Maillet, j9rnmorris@yahoo.com.

DIVINE MERCY

“I demand from you works of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me.”

For Jesus is our Hope: Through His merciful Heart, as through an open gate, we pass through to heaven. (Diary of St. Faustina, 1570)

Families often feel helpless and powerless when a loved one is dying. Some people hyper-focus on the physical and medical concerns of the situation—things they can perceive with their senses and try to control.

When it's time to let go and let God, the Divine Mercy chaplet can console both the dying and the grieving. Praying it at the bedside of a dying person is a powerful grace.

You can multiply that grace by contacting Martha at the parish office to request that the Divine Mercy Cenacle prayer group offer the chaplet for your loved one by name for seven consecutive days (renewable) for hope in Jesus.
